

INTRODUCING OUR NEW GRADUATE EXPERTS

Introducing our new graduate experts...

We asked the best graduates to join us and over 5000 graduates responded. Great applicants. Unfortunately, we could only accommodate 6 honours graduates. It is with great joy, pride and honour to introduce to you the next level C-suite executives!

Mr Ndumiso Khumalo

(Bachelor of Social Science (Honours))

I am Ndumiso Khumalo hailing from KwaZulu-Natal, Dundee. My hometown instilled in me values of diligence, integrity and perseverance. I am very enthusiastic, ambitious and outgoing person. I have strong team-oriented outlook and love being around people. Furthermore, I hold an Honours degree in Psychology that comes with experience of being intervention facilitator. I strive to make a positive impact at SABPP and extremely excited to be working with my new team.

Motshidisi Matsoso

(Bachelor of Communication Science Honours)

My name is Motshidisi Matsoso, I prefer people refer to me by my nickname Tshidi. I am a BA Communication Science Honours graduate, majoring in Corporate and Marketing. Originally I am from the Free State, I relocated to Gauteng last year due to work purposes.

I believe that I am dedicated person who values respect and integrity. One of my passions is the industry of marketing. It fascinates how an organisation is able to dabble into their creative space in creating tailored messages with an objective. In efforts to attract their target audience to their offerings.

I am person who loves continuous learning, for I believe it is imperative for self improvement.

Kgopotso Maonya

(Bachelor of Commerce (Honours) in LR & HR)

Good morning beautiful people, my name is Kgopotso Maonya but you can call me "Maps". I am from Limpopo. I'm happy to be here and I really appreciate the opportunity given to me by this esteemed organisation. I cannot wait to create beautiful memories with all of you.

Thandiwe Zitha
(Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in HR

I am Thandiwe Zitha, a HR Honours graduate, a proud alumna of the University of Johannesburg. I am originally from Mpumalanga, Nelspruit and have grown up in Pretoria. The beauty of growing up in Pretoria is the ability to speak multiple languages at an early age, which is an advantage for me and has indirectly influenced my career choice because I can easily interact and work with people from different backgrounds. I am excited to embark on this new journey and learn new skills and acquire work experience. I am extremely honoured on this career path, and I am looking forward to being part of your team.

Musengeli Ravele

(BCom Honours in Industrial Psychology

I am delighted to introduce myself as Ravele Musengeli, and I am honoured to be part of this esteemed team. My academic journey includes the completion of a BCom in Industrial Psychology at UJ, followed by a BCom Honours in Industrial Psychology at UP. Alongside my academic pursuits, I have a genuine passion for research, particularly in areas such as cultivating positive work environments, integrating mindfulness-based interventions in the workplace, and highlighting the crucial role of HR in organisational success.

Beyond my professional endeavours, I am often described as a bubbly and positive individual, grounded and always eager to learn. I hold a deep respect for humanity and believe in the power of love and kindness in our interactions. My personal values emphasise the importance of respect, empathy, and continuous growth.

Looking ahead, I am committed to realising my aspiration of becoming an HR Business Partner. To achieve this goal, I am dedicated to obtaining dual master's degrees—one in Industrial Psychology and another in Human Resource Management. I am genuinely excited to collaborate with each of you, using our combined strengths to drive our shared success.

Kegomoditswe Karabo Sebigi

(B Admin Honours in Organisational and Industrial Psychology)

It is an honor for me to be a member of this prestigious Organisation such as SABPP. My name is Kegomoditswe Sebigi, and I was born and raised in Northwest Province in Mahikeng in Magogoe Tar Village.

I think that the secret to success is a happy and cooperative work atmosphere, and I hope that we as a team will take the organization to the top. My hobbies outside of work usually include study. I'm genuinely excited to get to know each and every one of you and collaborate with you to produce something amazing.

Welcome experts to SABPP. We look forward to your great contribution and innovation to take the professional body to the next level

SABPP Regards

Mr Mawande
